MASCULINE

What does it mean for something to be masculine?

In the NPC world, masculinity is associated with; action, logic, structure, leadership, protection, dominance, & physical strength.

This is the outer layer, we see the execution of masculine energy in our physical world. Because we constantly experience the sensual nature of the physical world.

MASKULINE

NPCs use a misunderstanding of the flow of masculine & feminine energy.

The masculine does not impact the feminine....the masculine IS THE IMPACT OF THE feminine.

Masculine energy not operating from its pool of femininity first is broken code. Binary with no more complex mathematics to constrain it's overtly simplistic logic.

MASK CULINE

NPC culture is masquerading as masculine while hogging CPU & producing no effective code to operate as intended.

This culture has suppressed the feminine in the MirrorWorld as plain as unflavored yogurt. The distortion of masculine dominance is an illusion that is violently enforced.

If it were so true, why doesn't my soul feel it?

& I know I am not alone in this feeling, this deep inner knowing that something is fundamentally wrong with our planetary management system. [PMS]

distortion of masculinity

MASQ LINE

I surrender my physical form to be used by the feminine intelligence within me.

My feminine feels the world then flows to my physical with information on how to perform all physical actions.

My masculine form is the physical manifestation of my femininity.

My masculine form IS complete, whole, ever changing, & fluid

My feminine form IS complete, whole, every changing & fluid

My physical presense is temporally temporary.
